PROPERTY INSPECTION: At Any Time (Use Caution – Artesian Hot Springs along Clackamas River Frontage)

FINANCING: None – All Cash

DESCRIPTION: Austin Hot Springs is a 151± acre rare private in-holding, located within the Mt. Hood National Forest, 32± miles east of Estacada and along U.S. Forest Service Road 46, five miles past the Ripplebrook Ranger Station. Portland is a 75 minute drive from Austin Hot Springs. The property is located along a section of the Clackamas Wild and Scenic River, and contains over one-quarter mile of river frontage on both sides of the Clackamas River. The artesian hot springs are along both sides of the river, with temperatures of up to 185 degrees. A prior owner had reportedly drilled a well 1,500± feet deep for potential geothermal power generation, but the water temperature was not above the required 250 degrees.

Austin Hot Springs had been operated by Portland General Electric (PGE) as a campground and recreation area until it sold in the 1980s. It had been proposed by a prior owner to be a seasonal river front hot springs resort with lodge, cabins, RV spaces and tent camping, to be developed along the bench above the river, along USFS Road 46, which is typically open from May to November. There have been no plans submitted to Clackamas County.

This portion of the Clackamas River supports runs of Coho and spring and fall Chinook salmon, summer and winter steelhead. There are many popular campgrounds (Riverside, River Ford and Two Rivers) near the property.

Austin Preservation, associated with the Northwest Forest Conservancy, has been interested in the acquisition of Austin Hot Springs so that it could be protected, restored and used for sustainable recreation. Currently, although the property is posted as being private, it is used by the public for camping and hot springs recreation.

The property has approximately 117 acres of timberland not impacted by the riparian area along the river front. That timberland contains primarily 15 to 25 year old pre-merchantable Douglas-fir, hemlock and red alder, including 17± acres of 70-year-old red cedar and hemlock. 59± acres located north of USFS Road 46 have access from a gated logging road. The balance of the timber land is located south of the river and has access from a USFS logging road. Slopes are very steep, and a logging road will need to be reconstructed in order to harvest the timber. Please see Supplemental Information Package for type report from Stuntzner Engineering and Forestry.

Acquisition of Austin Hot Springs could provide opportunity for a potential exchange property with the U.S. Forest Service, or for development of a private retreat, camp, or commercial campground with RV and overnight sites, subject to a conditional use permit. The 117± acres of timberland could provide both short-term cash flow and long-term asset growth.

In addition, some conservation value might be obtained by providing a conservation easement which restricts development of recreation uses allowed either as a permitted or conditional use, under the zoning.

Bagby Hot Springs, managed by the U.S. Forest Service, is located 10± miles southwest of Austin Hot Springs, and contains two bath houses that are maintained by Friends of Bagby Springs. Camping is not permitted at Bagby Hot Springs.

LOCATION: Township 6 South, Range 7 East, Section 30, Tax Lot 3100 and Township 6 South, Range 6 East, Section 25, Tax Lot 2600. From Estacada, take Highway 224 27± miles to Ripplebrook Ranger Station, and then take USFS Road 46 5± miles to the Austin Hot Springs property. Please park alongside the road during inspection.

Please Note: Sketch plan is conceptual only. Neither the Seller nor its agents have submitted plan or made any applications to a public agency.

A new owner will have opportunity to either complete the renovation, or demolish the 1,600± square foot section to the existing home in order to provide for the design of two additional home sites that would have a shared entry drive from SE Willow Lane. DESCRIPTION: The restored Arthur Carpenter Emmons residence, built in 1890, is located on a hill in the Dunthorpe neighborhood, with a view of Mt. Hood. It was designed in the Swiss Chalet style, popular in America between 1850 and 1900. It is a fifteen minute drive from downtown Portland, within the Riverdale School District, and near Lewis and Clark College. The Emmons residence may be one of the oldest homes in Dunthorpe, and was featured June 19, 1904 in the Sunday Oregonian as one of the picturesque hillside homes of beautiful people of Portland. Marion Mac Rae, Oregonian reporter, wrote:

“In selecting a style of architecture for his Riverdale home, Mr. Arthur C. Emmons made a happy choice. The great overhanging eaves of his picturesque Swiss chalet peep over the top of the steep hill which here rises from the Riverside Drive like a miniature mountain, and it seems in perfect keeping with its surroundings. It nestles in among the trees of the hills which rise on beyond it, and glimpses of the quaint gabled roof up near the skyline put the spirit of exploration into the passerby, and he immediately has a desire to climb the hill and see this pretty home at close range."

The Seller purchased the home over twenty-five years ago, and has invested over $1 million in its restoration and remodel, using Cooper Construction. The 2 1/2 story home is located at the end of a circular private drive, above S.W. Riverside Drive, on a 1.56± acre parcel. There is opportunity, with the R-20 zoning, to create an additional home site, or a combination of tennis court, sport court and swimming pool using the level yard at the rear of the existing residence.

The Emmons residence is wood frame, 2 1/2 levels, and uses a simple rectangular plan, with full basement containing artisan-quality wood workshop and walk-in wine cellar. The home's top half-story is an entertainment-media room with superior built-in equipment. Generous outdoor covered porch and decking surround much of the main floor, as well as a covered deck located off the master bedroom suite upstairs.

The 1,954± square foot main floor contains the public areas of the home, with large, spacious rooms: East and West Living Rooms, formal Dining Room, Family Room with hand-built stone fireplace, Study, full Bathroom, and Kitchen that was remodeled, expanded and updated with Sub Zero and Gaggenau appliances. Floors are rich honey-colored Russian Oak, with Mahogany inlay detailing. The Main Entry Foyer features an ornate Redwood and Oak staircase with built-in seating nook. Coffered ceilings and wainscoting in the Living Room areas use a Redwood detail; the west Living Room has an ornate stone fireplace with ashlar pattern lower and running-bond brick upper. The Dining Room has a fireplace, built-in Redwood cabinets and Redwood picture rail.

The 2,514± square foot second floor contains three bedrooms, including the spacious master suite with soaking tub, shower, and walk-in closet with entirely built-in cabinetry. The master suite was part of a renovation which expanded the size of the second floor and added the decking. Full-size laundry appliances are adjacent to the master bathroom. The large second bedroom has a fireplace and full bathroom. The third bedroom has been used as a Library, and has fireplace and Russian Oak flooring with Mahogany inlay detailing.

The property had been two tax lots when it was originally purchased by the Seller.

There is a detached three-car garage located along the driveway that a portion of which could be re-used as an artist studio. There is a large landscaped yard with irrigation, and a stone staircase from the home's main entry to SW Riverside Drive, also known as Oregon Route 43.

A new home is under construction on the adjoining property.

The A.C. Emmons residence is not listed in either the City or State of Oregon inventory of cultural resources, but may be eligible for listing. The Swiss Chalet style originated in Germany in the early nineteenth century, and found great appreciation in the Pacific Northwest. More information concerning the architecture and its history is contained in the Supplemental Information Package.

LOCATION: 10643 S.W. Riverside Drive – Portland, Oregon, Block 4, Tax Lot 2200.

From Portland, take Oregon Route 43 toward Lake Oswego. The drive is located just past S.W. Carey Lane, on the right. Exit from the Emmons estate is right turn, only.

DESCRIPTION: This offering is a two-story 7,656± square foot multi-tenant office building, with net rentable space of 6,580± square feet and an adjoining 4,128± square foot parking lot, located in the historic downtown district of Albany, next to a Carnegie Library. The building, built in 1930, has frontage on Third Avenue SW, is across from a rear alley, was originally a funeral home, and was later converted to offices on the first floor with an apartment on the second floor.

The property may be acquired in its entirety, or the office building and parking lot may be purchased separately.

Please Note: Sketch plan is conceptual only. Neither the Seller nor its agents have submitted plan or made any applications to a public agency.

The Historic District Mixed-Use Village Center zoning encourages high density residential infill development that could be accommodated by using the parking lot, since off-street parking is not a stringent requirement in this Historic District. There is plentiful street parking by the property.

PARCEL A

RESERVE PRICE: $250,000*

The office building, which is wood frame with vinyl siding, currently has six private offices on the main floor, with two of the six occupied at a monthly rental of $450 per office. A staircase provides access to the second floor which was converted from an apartment into seven small offices: reception area, two meeting areas and several storage rooms. There is a kitchen, full bathroom and an additional rest room. One of the meeting areas was originally the living room of the apartment, and has a fireplace. A new owner could renovate the rear of the second floor into an apartment.

There is also a large basement, not included in the rental square footage, which could be used for storage. It has a separate entrance. A forced air heating and air conditioner serves the building.

The site could accommodate a three story, mixed-use building with ground floor commercial or office space, and up to eight small apartments with parking for four cars along the alley.

Acquisition of the property in its entirety, or by individual parcel, provides investment and development opportunity for acquiring an office building at less than $35 per square foot with options for renovation for single or multiple tenants, and an adjoining lot for less than $9 per square foot, all within Albany's downtown historic district, near shopping, the Carnegie Library and City Hall.

FINANCING: Subject to Seller's approval of Purchaser's credit: A 25% down payment with the balance secured by a first deed of trust, amortized over 25 years at 6% interest, calling for monthly payments of principal and interest; all due and payable at the end of 2 years.

DESCRIPTION: This 1.6± acre development site is located at the northwest corner of Benson Way and Crowson Road in the city of Ashland, off the southern portion of Siskiyou Boulevard (Highway 99), and has potential as a mixed-use development. The site is improved with a 1,771± square foot unoccupied home, built in 1890. The property is situated in an area of both large lot single family residences to the south and east, and large industrial buildings used for manufacturing purposes to the north, as well as being nearby the Crowson Mills redevelopment site. I-5 Exit 11 at Siskiyou Boulevard is within a five minute drive of the property.

The previous owner had preliminary plans to develop the site with a mixed-use manufacturing/office/residential complex, consisting of three residential units, 6,300± square feet of office space, and 18,800± square feet of industrial space. Implementation of this plan required that the property be annexed into the city, which has been successfully completed. With the annexation, the property falls under the E-1 (Employment) zoning ordinance, with a residential overlay on the portion of the property fronting Crowson Road. The E-1 zoning provides for a variety of uses that include office, retail and manufacturing, while the residential overlay allows, but does not require, the inclusion of a residential component in the overlaid portion of the property. The annexation required certain property and offsite improvements which are secured by a $120,805 deposit held by the City of Ashland.

Please Note: Sketch plan is conceptual only. Neither the Seller nor its agents have submitted plan or made any applications to a public agency.

DESCRIPTION: Miller Orchards, located in Cove, Oregon, are one of the largest commercial cherry orchards in Eastern Oregon. The orchards have been family-operated for over thirty years, and have long-standing relationships with both packers and warehouse operators. The 150± acres make-up one contiguous cherry orchard, and bids may be submitted for Parcel A or Parcel B individually, or both Parcels A and B combined. The Seller reserves the right to reject all bids unless the combined total accepted bids equal, or exceed, $760,000.

Oregon is the nation's third largest cherry producer, growing 11% of the US crop. The Cove area has been a center of cherry production for over one hundred years due to climate, elevation and irrigation water, which is in plentiful supply. Cherry production for the Miller Orchards for 2012 was approximately 900,000 gross lbs., with 70% of the volume in Lambert and Lapin cherries.

Parcel A is made up of two orchard areas known as the Nishii Orchard and the West Orchard. Combined, these two orchards total 57± acres in size, with 24± acres planted in mostly Lambert and Lapin cherries, and 3± acres planted in Bing cherries. Water is provided to the Nishii Orchard by Certificates C-395 and C-75574. Water is provided to the West Orchard by Certificates C-75575 and C-75574. County road access is to the northwest corner of the Nishii Orchard, by use of Wade Road. The minimum lot size for the Nishii Orchard is 10 acres, providing opportunity to create up to three parcels, or to develop one estate home site with a private orchard.

Parcel B is made up of five separate orchards: East, North, Middle, Above Ditch and South. Combined, these five orchards total 93.2± acres, with 81.2± acres planted in Lambert, Rainier, Lapin, Skeena, Sweetheart, Bing and Royal Ann cherries. Water is provided by Water Certificates C-42545, C-75575, C-75575 and C-36685.

Access to Parcel B is by easement from Mill Creek Road from Hidden Valley Lane. The zoning designation will not allow for any subdivision or residential development.

Parcel B is improved, with operations buildings used for harvest. Located at the end of Hidden Valley Lane and at the entrance to the orchard are the Brine Shed -- a 3,168± square foot pole building used for placing a bring solution into cherry bins -- and a 3,780± square foot pole building used as a Receiving Shed, which houses the hydro-cooler. A 2,592± square foot building attached to the Brine Shed is a general purpose building that is also used as the Orchard Office. Also located at the south end of Parcel B is Hidden Valley Camp which contains four living units, two multi-purpose sheds, and a hay cover. This camp has been used in the past to house seasonal harvest staff.

The sale of these two parcels separately will be subject to approval of partition by Union County.

LOCATION: From I-84 in LaGrande, take the second exit from either direction in LaGrande. Follow Highway 82 east to Island City, through the intersection heading east to Cove, approximately 14 miles. The order of the bidding will be announced prior to the Auction. As the successful bidder, you will sign a Bid Confirmation Sheet immediately upon acceptance of your high bid. An Auction escort will then usher you to the Contract Area, where you will complete the sales contract.

Writing the Sales Contract

In the Contract Area on Auction Day, you will sign the sales contract and make an earnest money deposit of ten percent (10%) of your bid price, but in no event less than the amount of your Certified Funds for each property you purchase. Your Certified Funds will be deposited as a portion of your earnest money deposit. The balance of the earnest money deposit may be by personal, or company, check. In addition to the Purchase and Sale Agreement, you will be required to sign a Buyer Acknowledgement Form verifying that you have inspected the property and are purchasing it in its "as is" condition. No allowances will be made for contingencies. Sample copies of contract documents are available in each Supplemental Information Package. The sales contract is a binding contract.

FINANCING

Many Sellers offer financing subject to approval of Buyers' credit. See individual property descriptions for details.

COOPERATING BROKERS

Broker cooperation is invited. A commission ranging from 1% to 2% will be paid to the real estate agent whose Buyer closes on the purchase of any Auction Property. The real estate agent must be a broker currently licensed by his/her state of residence or a salesperson licensed under such broker. Cooperating broker commissions will be paid upon close of escrow. Cooperating brokers will not share in any payment of liquidated damages.

Buyers must register their real estate agent on the Auction Registration Form or on the Sealed Bid Form. For the Oral Auction, the Registration Form should be received by the Auction Information Office at least three days prior to the Auction. No Auction Day Registration of real estate agents will be accepted.

For the Oral Auction, registered real estate agents must attend the Auction with their Buyer and must accompany their Buyer into the contract area if their Buyer is the successful high bidder.

No real estate agent will be recognized for a Buyer where that Buyer has previously contacted, or been contacted by, the Seller, or Realty Marketing/Northwest, concerning the Auction Property purchased. No commission will be paid to any real estate agent participating as a principal in the purchase of the property. The commission will be earned and paid upon the full and final closing by the Buyer on the conveyance of the property and the receipt of the full purchase price by Seller. No exceptions to this procedure will be made and no oral registrations will be accepted.

CLOSING AND COSTS

All sales must close within 30 to 45 days of the Auction, unless extended by the Seller, in writing. Prior to making a bid, refer to the Supplemental Information Package with regard to customary closing costs including, but not limited to, recording fees, normal prorations, title fees, transfer and/or excise taxes (if applicable), sales tax on personal property (if applicable), local improvements and irrigation district assessments (if applicable), and document preparation fees. Buyers will be responsible for any real estate compensation taxes or rollback taxes and penalties as a result of a change in use or designation of the property including, but not limited to, a change from open space, agriculture, forest land or recreation.

For the properties being offered for sale with No Minimum Bid, the Buyer will be required to pay all customary closing costs, including, but not limited to, title insurance premiums and sales tax thereon (if any), full escrow fees, back taxes and penalties (if any), local improvement and irrigation district assessments (if any), and state excise taxes.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

(A) No claim will be considered for allowance, adjustment or rescission based upon failure of the property to correspond to any particular expectation or standard (except the Preliminary Title Report).

(B) No bidder shall offer an advance upon the previous bid of less than the amount the Auctioneer directs. In the event of a dispute between bidders, the Auctioneer will make the sole and final decision to either accept the final bid or to re-offer and resell the property in dispute. The Auction will be recorded, and if any dispute arises following the Auction, the Auctioneer's records will be conclusive in all respects.

(C) Title insurance is available for each property, ensuring the title of such property to be in fee simple, subject to no encumbrances except current taxes and assessments, easements, rights of way, reservations, covenants, conditions and restrictions of record, purchase money financing and printed exceptions in the standard form Owner's Title Policy. A copy of the Preliminary Title Report for each property may be inspected prior to the Auction.

(D) To the extent permitted by law, properties will be sold "As Is". Prospective buyers should examine the property and all supporting documentation carefully. Each bidder is responsible for evaluating the property and shall not rely on the Seller or sales agents. All buyers will take possession at the close of escrow.

(E) Sizes and square footages set forth for the properties are approximations only, based on the best information available, but the actual sizes and square footages may be different. All sketch plans are conceptual in nature and neither Seller nor its agents have submitted plans or made applications to any public agency.

(F) Agency Disclosure. The selling and listing agent, Realty Marketing/Northwest, represents the Seller in these transactions.

(G) Seller and Sellers' Agents reserve the right to refuse admittance to or expel anyone from the Auction premises for interference with Auction activities, causing a nuisance, canvassing or other reasons.

(H) Seller has the right to postpone or cancel the Auction in whole or in part, at its sole discretion, and to modify or add any terms and conditions of sale and to announce such modifications or additional conditions either prior to, or at, the Auction.

(I) Offer void where prohibited. Catalog will not be mailed to residents of any state in which this offering is not in compliance with the real estate laws or other laws of that state.

Bridge Creek State Wildlife Area

Desolation Creek

13,440± Acres

Grant County, Oregon

Wilkins Creek

5,309± Acres

Umatilla County, Oregon

Strategic location as hunting preserve and recreation properties with an estimated 46.4 million board feet of primarily Douglas-fir and Ponderosa Pine, and volume projected to increase 250% within twenty-five years, providing for a significant long-term forest investment opportunity.

Proximity to both North Fork John Day River and Camas Creek, known for excellent trout, steelhead and salmon fishing, and Bridge Creek State Wildlife Area, managed as winter range for elk and deer.

Potential for development of hunting and recreation retreat, or private preserve, with significant conservation opportunity to restore upland and riparian areas along both Desolation and Wilkins Creeks, or for capturing carbon sequestration value from projected long-term growth of timber.

Excellent access to Highways 395, 53, I-84, and within a 90-minute drive of Pendleton.

SEALED BIDS DUE DECEMBER 4, 2013

REALTY MARKETING/NORTHWEST

The Desolation Creek and Wilkins Creek properties, totaling 18,749± acres, were acquired in 2002 by Hood River County as part of its 47,000± acre timber portfolio. The properties have been designated by the Hood River County Commission as non-strategic to on-going forestry operations, and the Sealed Bid Auction is being conducted so that sales proceeds may be reinvested in additional timberland within Hood River County.

An updated timber inventory conducted by Atterbury Consultants, Inc. has cruise reports, maps, and ortho aerials completed in September 2013.

A data site and Supplemental Information Package with timber inventory, twenty-five year growth projection, Phase I environmental assessment, zoning, leases, preliminary title report, bid form and instructions and purchase and sale agreement will be available to all prospective bidders.

Auction Catalog #1308, with Terms and Conditions of Sale, will be available October 14, 2013.

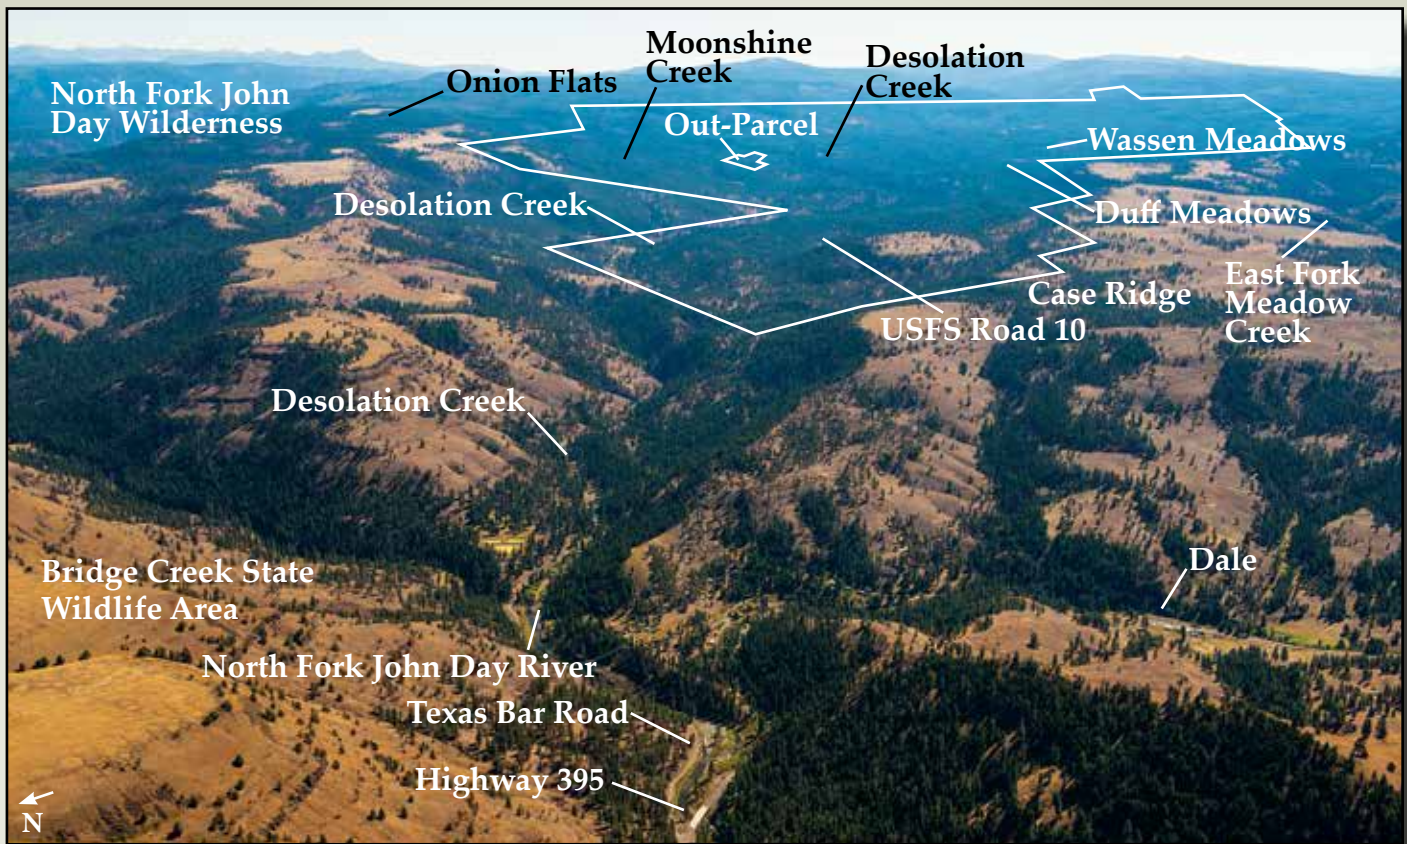

Strategic Location

The Desolation Creek and Wilkins Creek Tracts have locations strategic to log markets in La Grande, John Day, Pilot Rock, and Pendleton with mills operated by Boise Cascade, Malheur Lumber and Blue Mountain Lumber Products.

Commercial airports which can accommodate corporate jet aircraft are located in Pendleton and John Day. Portland is a 4.5 hour drive from the properties.

Desolation Creek is the largest private in-holding within the Umatilla National Forest Desolation Creek Drainage. Paved USFS Road 10 provides access throughout the property and to the boundary of North Fork John Day River Wilderness, to Olive Lake, and to headwaters of the North Fork John Day River.

Wilkins Creek is located between the Umatilla National Forest to the west, and Bridge Creek State Wildlife Area as well as having private ranches to both the east, and south. There is no public access within the 5,309± acre block. USFS roads provide access from Highway 53 to the northwest, and southwest, corners.

DESOLATION CREEK

GRANT COUNTY, OREGON

Desolation Creek is the largest private block of ownership within the Desolation Watershed which is tributary to North Fork John Day River, 1.5± miles from the property. Over ten miles of Desolation Creek runs on the property, and supports Chinook salmon, steelhead, bull trout, brook trout, cutthroat trout and mountain whitefish.

The North Fork John Day River and its tributaries account for about 70% of the salmon production within the John Day Basin, according to the U.S. Forest Service. Acquisition of the Desolation Creek Tract provides significant opportunity for a new owner to obtain conservation values in restoration of the 20± miles of riparian areas along Desolation Creek. Additional riparian restoration opportunity includes: Kelsay, Moonshine, Spring, Starveout and East Meadow Creeks.

86% of the Desolation Creek Tract, or 11,601± acres, is classified as forestland, and is mostly located on north- and west-facing slopes, with good site productivity. Elevations range from 3,000± to 5,000± feet with a well-developed system of both USFS and private roads. The bulk of the property may be harvested using ground-based systems.

The 2013 cruise estimates a total of 35,700± MBF, a 57% increase from the 2001 volume, prior to purchase by Hood River County. 72% of the 2013 estimated volume is Douglas-fir and ponderosa pine, with the balance being western larch, grand fir and lodgepole pine. The Seller has harvested only 221.9± MBF during its ten-year ownership. It has been projected that within the next 25 years timber volume will increase by over 265% to 96± million board feet.

The Desolation Creek Tract is also an excellent hunting and recreation property. It has not been leased for hunting by the Seller. The combination of ridge tops, meadows, steep draws and plentiful water have attracted both elk and deer. There are numerous opportunities to develop a private hunting retreat along ridge tops overlooking the Desolation Creek Drainage in the southwest section of the property. Currently, the property is leased through 2014 to three ranchers for grazing purposes, and generates annual income of $20,232. These leases may be terminated or re-negotiated by the new owner upon sale of the property.

Historically, a number of creek front cabins were built along the north bank of Desolation Creek. There are two remaining private in-holdings with cabins still on the property. An old hunters' cabin in disrepair remains in the southwest section. Additional cabins or campgrounds could be developed by a new owner in order to take advantage of easy accessibility and vehicle traffic on USFS Road 10 to Olive Lake, a popular campground that is south of the property.

USFS Road 10 provides excellent access throughout the property from Highway 395

WILKINS CREEK

5,309± ACRES

UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON

The Wilkins Creek Tract is located eight miles west of Ukiah, along a ridge between the Five Mile Creek Drainage and Highway 53, which is part of the Blue Mountain Scenic By-Way that provides access west to Heppner, and east to La Grande. The property is a contiguous block of private ownership, with Wilkins Creek and its two tributaries creating a total of three drainages which, in combination with the ridge top in the southwest section, provides excellent hunting habitat for both elk and deer. The Seller has not leased the property for hunting.

Access to both the northwest and southwest is from Highway 53 and USFS Road 5309, and to USFS Road 5310, to locked gates on the property. Elevations range from 3,200± to 4,500± feet, with primarily moderate north- and northwest-facing slopes. There is a system of internal logging roads that provides access throughout the property, but is in need of some maintenance and repair. The majority of the property may be harvested using ground-based systems.

76% of the Wilkins Creek Tract, 4,011± acres, is classified as forestland. 1,255± acres are grasslands and include a large meadow in the southwest section by the Elk Gate that could easily accommodate an airstrip. Within the grasslands area are two stock ponds along with an old hunters' cabin that is in disrepair. Two ranchers lease the Wilkins Tract for grazing through 2014, which generates $7,092 in annual income. Leases may be terminated or re-negotiated upon sale of property.

The 2013 timber cruise estimates a total of 10,750± MBF, with 90% of the volume Douglas-fir and ponderosa pine. It also shows a significant 80% increase in growth since the property was acquired in 2002, with 5,912± MBF. The Seller has harvested only 314± MBF during its ownership. It has been projected that within the next 25 years the timber volume will increase by over 200%, to 21.5 million board feet.

Acquisition of the 18,749± acre Portfolio, owned by Hood River County, in either bulk, or by individual property, provides a rare opportunity to purchase large blocks of productive eastern Oregon timberland as long-term forest investment, with added benefits of hunting, recreation, and potential attainment of conservation values from providing easements or carbon sequestration.

Northwest Farm Credit Services is the preferred lender, and may have financing available for qualified parties. Please see Auction Catalog for details.
