

The Opportunity

Strategic location as hunting preserve and recreation properties, with estimated 46.4 million board feet of primarily Douglas-fir and ponderosa pine, and volume projected to increase by 250% within twenty-five years.

Significant long-term forest investment opportunity, with options for capturing conservation and carbon sequestration values.

